Colleagues across the nation are using Separation and Loss Services’ individual and group therapy intervention, called Restorative Retelling. Restorative Retelling is a therapy model that reduces trauma distress and emphasizes resilience by focusing the bereaved on celebrating the living memory of their loved one.

Sessions are lead by Laura Takacs, LICSW, MPH, Clinical Director and Mental Health Therapist at Virginia Mason, Separation and Loss Services.

Early bird registration on or before July 7th: $450
Registration after July 7th: $525
